Product description

Cibidil is an oil based on cannabidiol, a compound naturally present in cannabis, which does not have a psychoactive effect, but rather has calming effects. Thanks to its properties, it has earned scientific recognition at an international level, being used to calm ailments, stress and fatigue, among others.

Cibidil Contains 15% CBD cannabidiol is one of the 113 cannabinoids found in cannabis, being the main component of the plant in hemp varieties, helps combat insomnia and improves sleep quality, reduces stress, anxiety and depression.

Unlike tetrahydrocannabinol THC, cannabidiol is not psychoactive and is considered to have wide possibilities for use. It causes a sedative effect and inhibits the transmission of nerve signals associated with pain.

It has a calming effect, is anti-inflammatory, drastically reduces acne, helps combat insomnia and improves the quality of rest and helps treat anxiety, stress and depression.

Its use is very simple, it simply has to be applied locally in the desired area and you will notice its effects quickly. Its presentation in oil format makes its use very comfortable, since small doses of product serve to treat large areas of our body with good results.

Ingredients: Hemp oil Cannabis sativa 85% / Pure CBD isolate 15%
