Product description

U-Relax Pills are made up of natural ingredients that work together to control normal anxiety and calm high levels of stress at specific times.

The capsules improve mood and help you rest better at night, being of great help to people who suffer great stress due to certain circumstances, such as during a weight loss process, when quitting smoking, during exams or job interviews, etc.

It is recommended to take U-Relax Pills right at the time of greatest stress and anxiety, so that the effect is immediate and long-lasting.

The capsules increase serotonin levels in the brain to create a greater feeling of well-being.
