Product description

Addicted toys is the most complete range of rings. Its design has been revised to perfectly stimulate the penis and all its senses, each one has been designed by a team of engineers from Adicted Toys.

This kit with three super elastic rubber rings to choose from, is the perfect variety to help you achieve your maximum potential.

Find the perfect size for you and reach the largest and most intense erections ever imagined. Test the rings in different combinations to find the most explosive results or use the three rings at the same time for the final resistance test.
