Product description

Experience a unique and deep pleasure experience with the Addicted Toys rotating prostate massager, a device designed to offer precise, powerful, and completely personalized stimulation. This massager combines advanced technology with an anatomical design that adapts perfectly to the male body, providing intense stimulation of the P-spot (prostate) and perineum.

Thanks to its super-powerful motor and innovative rotating head, this stimulator offers an enveloping internal massage sensation that reproduces the circular motion of a manual massage, reaching the prostate with precision and increasing the intensity of each vibration. Its 10 vibration modes allow you to adjust the experience to your liking, from gentle pulsations to deep waves of pleasure that will bring you to the most intense climax.

The wireless remote control adds a touch of fun and convenience, allowing you to manage the functions without interrupting the moment. It's ideal for couples play, allowing your partner to control the intensity and pace of pleasure, or for enjoying it solo with total freedom.

Made with ultra-smooth medical silicone and high-quality ABS, this massager is body-safe, phthalate-free, and completely flexible, ensuring comfortable, safe, and pleasurable insertion. Its smooth, velvety surface offers a silky, very pleasant feel, while its ergonomic design adapts perfectly to the male anatomy for effective P-spot stimulation.
