Product description

Discover the power of anal pleasure with the Addicted Toys rotating vibrating plug, a stimulator designed to offer unique, intense, and fully customizable sensations. Thanks to its advanced technology, this plug combines vibration and rotation to provide a deep experience that precisely stimulates the P-spot (prostate) and the most sensitive areas of the body.

Its super-powerful dual motor works in perfect synchrony to generate intense, constant vibrations throughout the entire structure, while its rotating head adds a circular, enveloping motion that mimics a manual massage, reaching the point of maximum pleasure with ease. With 10 vibration modes, you can choose between different rhythms and intensities to adapt the experience to your level of arousal or the type of stimulation you prefer.

The wireless remote control gives you complete freedom and convenience, allowing you to change modes or power without interrupting the moment. It's perfect for solo use or as a couple, letting your partner take control of the pleasure and explore all the possible combinations with you.

Made with super-soft medical silicone and high-quality ABS, this plug is body-safe, phthalate-free, and extremely pleasant to the touch. Its smooth, silky surface ensures comfortable and secure insertion, while its anatomical shape promotes precise stimulation of the P-spot.
