Product description

This Addicted Toys pressure ring set includes four rings specifically designed to provide firmer control and intense stimulation during sex. The rings are made from high-quality materials that ensure a comfortable and secure fit. They are ideal for those looking to prolong their performance, improve erection firmness, and increase the intensity of sensations.

Set details:

Ring 1:

- Width: 44 mm
- Insertable diameter: 34 mm
- This ring offers moderate pressure, ideal for those looking for a comfortable but firm fit. It helps maintain a longer erection without being too constrictive.

Ring 2:

- Width: 39 mm
- Insertable diameter: 31 mm
- This ring is slightly smaller in size, offering more intense pressure. It is perfect for those looking for greater constriction and control without losing comfort.

Ring 3:

- Width: 36 mm
- Insertable diameter: 29 mm
- With a smaller insertion diameter, this ring provides stronger pressure, helping to prolong the erection and increase the feeling of firmness.

Ring 4:

- Width: 33 mm
- Insertable diameter: 25 mm
- This is the smallest ring and tightness of the set, offering maximum pressure for those seeking a more intense experience and superior erection control.

This set is ideal for those who wish to experiment with different levels of pressure and tightness, ensuring greater satisfaction for both the user and their partner. The rings are designed to adapt to various needs, providing a wide range of sensations that enhance the sexual experience.
