Product description

The Addicted Toys Double Loop Silicone Penis Rope is an accessory designed for those seeking more precise control and additional stimulation during sex. Made from high quality silicone, this rope offers flexibility, comfort and a secure fit, enhancing the sexual experience comfortably and effectively.

Key Features:

- Length: 195mm, providing enough length for a comfortable and secure fit around the penis, allowing the pressure and fit to be customized to the user's preference.
- Cord Thickness: 5mm, offering adequate thickness for a firm fit, but without being uncomfortable, ensuring stability during use.
- Ball:

- Ball Width: 18mm, the ideal size to effectively hold the rope in place, providing stability and control.
- High Ball Size: 15mm, designed to ensure the ball stays in position, ensuring a firm fit during use.

The double loop rope design allows for greater control as it can be adjusted more precisely around the penis, providing a more intense and satisfying experience. The silicone material is soft and flexible, ensuring comfort without losing functionality.

Recommendations:

It is recommended to use lubricant to make the rope easier to fit and to improve comfort during use. Additionally, silicone is easy to clean, ensuring the product stays hygienic and ready to use.
