Product description

Enjoy the most explosive ejaculations with the Ass.Gasm Cockring Advanced plug.

Made of ultra-soft silicone (Elite Silicone™), this plug works as a ring, to prolong the act and extend the fun, and as a prostate stimulator at the same time.

The key to anal sex is to do it slowly. Attempting anal penetration the wrong way is not pleasant, so allow yourself to relax and enjoy the experience.

Finger play is a good way to relax the anus, so use the thimble (included) to massage the area. The anus and rectum do not have a natural lubrication system like the vagina so use Moist® anal lubricant (included) to reduce friction and increase pleasure.

With the Ass-Gasm inserted and the ring placed you will experience spectacular sensations. The silicone ring tightens and improves performance because it keeps the erection firm. The shaft that joins the plug and the ring is super thin and keeps the plug steady when the action begins.

- It is made of silicone (Elite Silicone™) which is ultra hygienic and also free of phalates and very flexible.
- Insertable length: 10.1 cm
- Plug diameter: 4cm
- Ring diameter 4cm
- Latest model of the Best-selling Ass-Gasm Cockring
