Product description

Morbidity is a human reality, that is, one of the basic impulses of the human being. It has to do with the instinctive part and is part of all needs, such as: eating, having sexual relations, socializing, sleeping, among others.

Some studies carried out at Wake Forest University have shown that morbid interest has always been present in our brain. That is why morbidity is something that can be defined as a need of people, something they need to have or do.

This feeling is a kind of force that drives people to come into contact with it and leads them to experience pleasure when doing so. The pleasure of doing something forbidden or breaking the rules.

Morbidity has different ways of expressing itself, among them is pornography; Viewing this type of content satisfies people's curiosity, but also allows them to take a step beyond common sexual relationships. That's why ANBIGUO is born, the first brand designed for sexual morbidity without limits!

Where the forbidden begins is morbidity and ambiguity. Without labels, without limitations and with a lot of passion we have developed this brand.

If you think that having a smart sex watch is not necessary because with a normal remote control you achieve your goals, you are wrong. In this article we will explain some benefits that WATCHME technology will bring you.

What is a WATCHME watch?

It is a sexual smart watch that will help you control the top sex toys. We can synchronize them with sex toys that use watchme technology to control the vibrations and functions of our favorite sex toy.

Functions of a WATCHME watch

In a WATCHME watch there are some outstanding functions that we will detail:

- Activate/Deactivate vibration.
- Modify vibration modes
- Modify the intensities in each vibration mode.

For years we have seen thousands of sex toys use a remote control, this has always allowed you to play in a fun way with your partner or alone using a remote control to give pleasure from a distance. It is very pleasant to use a remote control, however, with Watchme we have gone one step further in the convenience and comfort of the sexual act.

Why use the WATCHME watch?

We explain the main reasons that will make you think about using a remote control in the form of a watch.

When we practice sexual intercourse, we are focused on giving and receiving pleasure. When using remote control toys we sometimes lose control between the sheets. With Watchme this will not happen, the watch will always be reachable and your focus will only be giving or receiving pleasure.

When we use the remote control, we want it to be as discreet as possible, to go completely unnoticed. In recent years we have seen the advancement of smart watches such as Apple Watch or many more. However, when using the watchme watch it will go unnoticed because Now it is very common to look at the watch to check the calories burned, photos, messages, etc. The only difference will be that by looking at watchme will you be controlling your lover's pleasure or your own, ready for action?

Watchme is a watch made of comfortable soft silicone designed for the advancement of remote control, being the only watch on the market that allows the intensities to be varied in each vibration mode and offering an endless number of vibration modes from soft to strong.
