Product description

Bnaughty Deluxe Unleashed is a smooth, cordless bullet that will satisfy all your curiosities for hours of waterproof pleasure. Use the discreet and intuitive remote control to experience the 6 functions of this silicone bullet. The Bnaughty Deluxe Unleashed is a versatile pleasure powerhouse. The compact, silky silicone bullet is waterproof and perfect for solo adventures or couples play. Control all 6 functions with the discreet remote control with backlit on/off buttons and function buttons, or independently with controls built into the bullet itself.

You decide if you take control or if you prefer to play as a couple! To use, simply press and hold the built-in power button on the bullet for 3 seconds, a small vibration indicates the bullet is on. To use it without the remote control, press the built-in button again to cycle through the 6 functions. To use with the wireless remote control, simply press the power button located on the remote control, a red backlight indicates the remote control is on. Press the function button to experiment with the 6 functions.

To turn off, press the power button located on the remote control and hold the built-in power button on the bullet for 3 seconds. The Bnaughty Deluxe Unleashed is conveniently powered by 2 AAA batteries in the wireless remote control and 1 AA battery in the bullet. Batteries are not included. The Bnaughty Deluxe Unleashed Bullet is made of non-porous, easy-to-clean silicone. The easiest way to clean your toy is with soap and warm water and let it air dry.
