Product description

We present to you the smallest of the vibrating rabbits on the market. The size and how quiet it is make this one super discreet.

The ergonomic handle design, with a uniquely contoured head, naturally targets and massages the G-spot, while the rabbit stimulator completely covers the clitoris.

Made of hypoallergenic silicone, a non-porous and body-friendly material, very sensual to the touch, it heats up quickly to melt with your body heat and offer a smooth glide.

It incorporates 5 vibration functions and two motors that operate in cycles that are activated through a button on the base of the rabbit massager, which illuminates with a white light so that it is easy to play with it in the dark.

This fantastic bunny is completely submersible, so you can play with him in the shower or bathtub.

The box contains: Vibrator, carrying bag and instruction manual.
