Product description

B Swish brings you this splendid and delicious rabbit-shaped massager, with 5 functions and made of silicone, with 2 individual motors and ready for waterproof fun. With a curvy, tapered handle and a gentle but precise stimulator, the Bwild Classic Bunny will satisfy anyone seeking solo pleasure, but is also definitely suited to couples-oriented scenarios! Be free.

The Bwild Classic Bunny is ultra-discreet due to its size and is also extremely quiet, perfect for shared homes. With a subtly tapered handle, the uniquely contoured head will naturally target the G-spot while the flexible, vibrating ears stimulate the clitoris for maximum pleasure.

Made from hygienic non-porous silicone, the Bwild Classic Bunny is easy to wear on the body and impressively sensual to the touch. It heats up quickly to match body heat while offering a smooth glide. Use a good quality water-based lubricant and clean with soap and warm water.

The 5 functions and two motors operate in cycles that are activated through a button on the base of the rabbit massager, which illuminates with a white light so it is easy to play with in the dark.
