Product description

Eros Fountain is a realistic dildo that simulates ejaculation, and also has a suction cup to turn your fantasies into reality.

If you're looking for a realistic dildo that goes above and beyond to give you a deliciously realistic experience, check out this pleasure eruption ejaculatory suction dildo. The dildo is shaped with a firm, thick shaft for powerful stimulation and offers a suction base that will keep the dildo secure when applied to a flat, smooth surface, this will allow for hands-free play!

The material is soft, flexible and completely safe for the skin and the internal mechanisms allow you to fill the dildo with lubricant beforehand and create the realistic effect of ejaculation during use.

Eros Fountain has the following characteristics;

- Ejaculation through external device.
- Strong suction.
- TPR material 100% free of phalates.

Put a little water into the external device, squeeze it as soon as you reach orgasm...the sensation will be real.

Measures; 20 cm total length x 4 cm width.

Designed in the USA.
