Product description

It is a revolutionary harness for women without straps and with a built-in vibrator as well as an anal stimulator.

Forget about straps when using it, you just have to insert the shorter end into the vaginal area and penetrate your partner with the other end, a very soft and flexible jelly penis.

- It incorporates a powerful vibrator with speed regulator.
- Designed to give pleasure to both the person wearing it and the person being penetrated.
- You can also enjoy it alone, using it as a vibrator.
- Without a doubt a new toy, compared to the rest of the harnesses on the market.
- Diameter: 3.5cm

Thanks to its contoured shape it adapts perfectly to the body. The rounded tip of the toy is held inside the vagina through the contraction of the vaginal muscles, the ribbed part stimulates the clitoris of the wearer while the toy is at the perfect angle to penetrate your partner.

With this toy you develop your anal and vaginal muscles, helping you achieve more intense orgasms in addition to stimulating the anal area.

It works with 2 LR03/AAA batteries that you can find in the Batteries section.
