Product description

HydroXtreme8: the best option for pumping the penis, our latest edition in the series to choose the size even better. Take your hydrotherapy to a whole new level with the world's most powerful penis pump.

Taking the Hydropump design to a new level, with a new valve and detachable handball, the Hydroxtreme-Series is the Hydropump for the man who really wants to get the best out of his pump. The Hydroxtreme series comes complete with all the accessories you could ask for. The Hydroxtreme8 is Designed for a user whose penis measures between 15 and 20 cm (6 to 8 inches) when in use. erect.

HydroXtreme8, the most advanced penis pump option on the market for those measuring between 6 and 8 inches, allows you to maximize your gains, with an easy-to-use ball that allows you to reach the maximum safe pressure level. If you're an experienced user, HydroXtreme8 allows you to get the most out of your penis pump workout, while new users can customize their routine, starting gently for long-lasting gains.

An ideal choice for users who measure between 6 and 8 inches when erect, the Bathmate HydroXtreme8 is an easy-to-use device. Once filled with warm water, seal the pump against your body, then use the handball attachment to maximize pressure if necessary, and leave it on for up to 5 minutes at a time.

Since Bathmate HydroXtreme8 offers unprecedented power, we recommend it to experienced penis pump users. However, we have a wide range of hydropumps suitable for beginners (and less experienced users) of this size. Check out our Bathmate Hydromax8 for high-powered performance. Like our other Bathmate hydropumps, the HydroXtreme8 is Designed for comfortable use as it can be easily used in the shower or bath as part of your daily routine.

The main advantage of the Bathmate HydroXtreme range over our other models is the high power that the pump can produce thanks to the handball attachment, allowing users to completely personalize their penis enlargement routine. HydroXtreme8 provides powerful performance that helps users around the world achieve unmatched profits.

You really don't have to take our word for it when we say that Bathmate HydroXtreme delivers real, long-lasting results. In our Bathmate Reviews section, we've brought together some fantastic stories from our customers, while our Bathmate Videos show you exactly what happens when you use a Bathmate pump.

As part of helping you get the most out of your pump, we include a free Bathmate accessory kit with every HydroXtreme pump, which includes the following products:

- Case
- Cleaning sponge
- Handball
- Comfort insert pad
- Hose accessory
- Clean bathroom companion
