Product description

Our vulvar balm is perfect for intimate wellness and daily comfort. It soothes and protects the most delicate skin, relieving dryness, irritation, and discomfort — especially during hormonal changes. More than a quick fix, it deeply nourishes and strengthens the skin’s natural barrier, leaving it soft, supple, and cared for. A vulvar balm is essential to feel good in your body, every day.

Soothes and protects the vulva – The delicate skin of the vulva is more vulnerable to irritation and needs gentle, protective care every day.

Relieves dryness, irritation, and discomfort – Hormonal changes, such as those during perimenopause, can leave the vulva sensitive, and immediate relief restores comfort.

With aloe vera, chamomile, and centella asiatica – These natural extracts are known for their soothing, anti-inflammatory, and skin-protective properties.

Nourishes with shea butter and botanical oils – Deep hydration reinforces the skin’s natural barrier, keeping it soft, supple, and resilient over time.
