Product description

Inspired by an ancient hemorrhoid remedy, this olive oil preparation infused with carob seeds, along with botanical oils and plant extracts, pampers the most sensitive areas before and after intimate play. Enriched with calendula, chamomile, and centella asiatica, it soothes, repairs, and promotes natural recovery, while sweet almond, olive, avocado, and jojoba oils provide lasting comfort and hydration.

Inspired by an ancient remedy – Based on a traditional Mediterranean recipe used to relieve hemorrhoids, where olive oil infused with carob seeds soothes and repairs sensitive skin.

Soothes and repairs – Olive oil infused with carob seed, calendula, chamomile, and centella asiatica helps calm irritation, reduce redness, and support the skin’s natural recovery after anal play.

Nourishing botanical base – Formulated with sweet almond, olive, avocado, and jojoba oils, it delivers deep hydration and elasticity, keeping sensitive skin soft and protected.

Care before and after – Designed for use before and after anal play to prepare, protect, and restore the area, improving comfort and reducing post-play sensitivity.

Safe and respectful formula – 100% natural, vegan, and free from parabens, silicones, and synthetic fragrances. Compatible with sex toys, but may damage latex condoms.

Silky texture – Its balanced blend of oils creates a smooth and sensual glide that absorbs gradually, leaving the skin nourished but not sticky.
