Product description

NEUTRAL WATER-BASED LUBRICANT

It is time for us to begin to understand that our lubricants must have the same quality formula that we demand from our skin care products. Let's give them the importance they deserve!

In addition to the many factors that can contribute to lack of lubrication (such as diet and stress level, for example), lubricants are not exclusive to people with vulvas. They are the perfect allies for solo play regardless of your genitals. They also combine perfectly with your favorite toy and, above all, they also accompany us when we have to lubricate areas of the body that do not lubricate naturally to make them safe, painless and fun. A lube isn't just a problem solver, it's the Jedi master of sexual "accessories."

A medical-grade water-based lubricant formulated with high-quality ingredients to match your natural lubrication, with no fragrance, coloring or added sugar.

30 ml · 1 FL. O.Z.
