Product description

SEXUAL MASSAGE OIL WITH CBD - A unique blend of broad-spectrum CBD and botanical extracts for pleasure, designed for people with vulvas to use alone or in company. Our all-natural intimate oil works with your body to increase pleasure and sensations, and improve orgasms.

If you haven't experienced CBD yet, then our Exciting CBD Sexual Oil is a perfect introduction. CBD has made its way in recent years for its analgesic and anti-stress properties, which is just the tip of the iceberg.

CBD can stimulate blood flow, an essential component of sexual arousal. When our genitals are filled with blood, our response to sensations increases as our body prepares for intercourse.

Research also suggests that CBD may help hormonal balance and increase natural lubrication, making it an advantage for perimenopausal or menopausal women. You only need a few drops to unleash maximum pleasure.

Stress can significantly affect sexual well-being, causing tension and anxiety that decrease pleasure. CBD oils, which contain cannabidiol, have shown promise in reducing stress and promoting relaxation. By interacting with the endocannabinoid system, CBD can help create a more relaxed state of mind and body, improving sensations and increasing the capacity for pleasure. This natural remedy offers a promising avenue for those seeking to increase their pleasure and elevate their intimate experiences.
