Product description

Enjoy a pumping experience with extreme comfort and protection and add the advanced silicone sleeve to your favorite pump.

This flexible, stretchy, and protective sleeve eliminates uncomfortable suction for a totally luxurious experience. Penis pumps work by suction to create an airtight seal around your penis.

Pumping leads to increased blood pressure and flow; In the short term, this results in erections that are harder than ever. In the long term, pumping encourages growth in both length and width so you can impress your lovers and increase your confidence in the bedroom.

This pump sleeve fits cylinders measuring up to 3 inches in diameter. The sleeve is made of premium, high-quality silicone to give you the comfortable sucking experience you want.

Simply slide it onto the cylinder base of your favorite device for added comfort and protection.

Pure silicone provides the ultimate durable snap ring to fit a variety of cylinder sizes. This universal sleeve is body safe and fragrance-free for peace of mind and takes your pumping session to new levels of pleasure.
