The skin-friendly material feels perfect against the skin. The slightly structured surface of the love balls also stimulates you. A convenient retractable safe silicone cord allows for easy removal of the balls. If you want to wear your new love balls in wet weather, nothing stands in your way.

CICI BEAUTY PREMIUM SILICONE 3 VIBRATING KEGEL BEADS REMOTE CONTROL is manufactured waterproof. And if they run out of breath, you can easily recharge them with the included USB charging cable.

SMALL BALLS - BIG EFFECT

These love balls combine training and stimulation par excellence. Just 15 minutes of use a day is enough to sustainably strengthen the pelvic floor muscles. These muscles are responsible, among other things, for your ability to reach orgasm. But it does not only increase the fun of the game. They also prevent urinary incontinence. It's particularly important that you start training now, even if you don't have any symptoms yet. Also, love balls are beneficial for women after childbirth. Stressed muscles are trained again and nothing stands in the way of having fun together. Your partner will also benefit from your new favorite toy. With strengthened muscles, your partner will feel an intense feeling of tightness and will not want to let go of you in the future. All CICI BEAUTY toys are of course waterproof and will be your perfect companion both in a romantic hot tub and under the comfortable sheets at home. The underwater vibes of this fun partner are perceived by many couples as particularly intense.

In addition, Cici Beauty Vibrating Kegel Beads are waterproof (IPX7), so they can also accompany you in the most humid places, such as the shower or bathtub. If Cici Beauty Vibrating with Vibration runs out of breath, its built-in batteries can be recharged using the included USB charging cable.
