Product description

The COCK MILLER 19.5 cm with thrusting function is a latest generation realistic dildo, developed for those seeking deeper and more dynamic stimulation. Thanks to its motorized thrusting system, this dildo simulates the natural back and forth motion of penetration, offering an intense, realistic, and completely hands-free experience.

Main technical characteristics:

- Total length: 19.5 cm
- Insertable length: ~17.5 cm
- Average diameter: 4.2 cm (with anatomically detailed design)
- Material: Premium medical-grade silicone, hypoallergenic, phthalate-free
- Texture: Realistic with a smooth, skin-like finish and details like veins, a defined glans, and a slight curvature

Electronic Features:

- Thrusting System: Linear forward and backward motion, simulating real penetration
- Thrusting Modes: Various speeds and rhythmic patterns (from gentle to intense)
- Silent Motor: Low-noise design (<50 dB), with a reinforced internal mechanism for stable movement
- Wireless Remote Control: Range of up to 10 meters, ideal for couples or contactless control
- USB Rechargeable Battery: 600 mAh / Continuous Use Time: 45–75 minutes
- Working Time Charge: ~2.5 hours

Design and Usability:

- Water resistance (IPX6): Splash resistant, suitable for shower use (not submersible)
- Strong suction cup base: Allows hands-free use on smooth, vertical surfaces
- Harness compatibility: Suitable for O-ring harnesses, ideal for couples play

Maintenance and recommendations:

- Clean with warm water and neutral soap before and after each use
- Use only with water-based lubricants
- Store in a dry place, away from dust and light Direct. Includes hygienic storage bag.
