Product description

Take your pleasure experience to new heights with the IBIZA Remote Controlled G-Spot and Clitoral Stimulation Wearable Vibrator. Designed to provide precise and effective stimulation to both the G-spot and clitoris, this innovative vibrator is perfect for those seeking a discreet yet intense pleasure experience. Thanks to its ergonomic design and two powerful motors, you can enjoy simultaneous and personalized stimulation while maintaining complete control of the experience, all from the included remote control.

Highlighted Features:

- 2 Powerful Motors: This vibrator features two high-powered motors, one dedicated to G-spot stimulation and the other to clitoris stimulation. The motors work in sync, offering you a complete, immersive pleasure experience that adapts perfectly to your body.
- USB Rechargeable: Forget about disposable batteries. The Wearable G-Spot and Clitoral Vibrator is easily recharged via a USB port, ensuring it's always ready to go. With just a few hours of charging, you'll enjoy continuous, powerful performance for as long as you want.
- Remote Control: The most notable feature of this vibrator is its remote control, which allows you to modify the vibration and oscillation modes without interrupting the moment. Whether using it solo or with a partner, the remote control gives you complete flexibility to effortlessly customize the experience to your liking.
- 10 Vibration Modes: With 10 vibration modes, you can choose from a wide range of intensities and rhythms, from gentle and sensual to more intense pulsations. Whether you're looking for gentler stimulation or a more exciting experience, this vibrator gives you the versatility you need to explore your desires.
- 10 Oscillation Modes: In addition to the vibration modes, the G-Spot and Clitoral Stimulation Wearable Vibrator also has 10 oscillation modes that allow you to experience different stimulation patterns, perfect for varying the sensation and exploring new forms of pleasure. The combination of vibration and oscillation allows you to customize the experience even further.
- Silicone and ABS Material: Made with medical-grade silicone and ABS, this vibrator is completely body-safe. The silicone is soft, flexible, and comfortable, ensuring you can enjoy a pleasurable sensation during use. The ABS, meanwhile, adds strength and durability, ensuring the product maintains its performance for a long time.
- IPX5 Waterproof: Thanks to its IPX5 rating, this vibrator is splash-proof, meaning you can use it in the shower, bathtub, or any other aquatic environment without worry. Its water resistance also makes it easy to clean, allowing you to keep it in top condition after each use.

The IBIZA Remote Control Wearable G-Spot and Clitoral Stimulator Vibrator is the ideal device for those seeking a personalized, intense, and discreet experience. With two powerful motors, 10 vibration modes, 10 oscillation modes, and an ergonomic design that fits perfectly to your body, this vibrator provides simultaneous and complete stimulation, ideal for reaching new heights of pleasure. Its discreet design, remote control, and waterproof features make it a perfect accessory for both solo and couples use. Immerse yourself in a unique experience of pleasure with this innovative and versatile vibrator!
