Product description

Deodorant solution for external use for hygiene and intimate conditioning of the male genital area before and after sexual relations after intimate washing with "INTIM GEL". Remember that good hygiene prevents the action of bacteria and their proliferation.

This deodorant is sanitizing, respects the PH of the skin, maintaining the acidic layer that covers the glans and protects it.

It contains unisex pheromones in its aroma, which favors sexual conditions of attraction and desire, as well as libido. It is therefore a good conductor of attraction and desire.

Mode of Use; Press the spray repeatedly on the area in sufficient quantity; You can repeat as many times as you want.

75 ml container
