Product description

Put your lover on lockdown with the Hardcore Silicone Cock Blocker! Fasten the lock, hide the key, and make sure your partner keeps his cock where it belongs! This high-end chastity cage is made from our body-safe, phthalate-free Elite Silicone and is designed for comfortable long-term wear. The chastity device is lightweight, flexible, and breathable, but once the lock is applied, your subject can’t get hard no matter how aroused they are!

The Hardcore Silicone Cock Blocker features a sturdy stainless steel adjustable ring that wraps around your subject’s entire package, leaving his shaft locked inside the breathable silicone sleeve. With unparalleled comfort, this ventilated silicone chastity cage is the ultimate chastity device for first-timers and serious fetish enthusiasts alike. Enjoy the thrill of locking your lover up, or relinquish control and hand over the keys!

The silicone cage is easy to wash, body-safe, and super hygienic. The vent holes allow you to clean your subject’s package while they still wear the cage, and the ring is made from high-grade stainless steel. The silicone sleeve has a small pee-hole to assist urination, and the entire device can be worn under clothing for amazing one-of-a-kind thrills!

To install the silicone sleeve onto the metal ring, make sure the metal ring’s opening is facing upwards and slide both pairs of silicone loops onto each side of the ring. Once you’ve looped the silicone sleeve onto the steel ring, choose one of the 3 holes and install one of the locks.
