Product description

Double your pleasure and double the fun…with this strap-on dildo two's better than one! The silicone ring on the top of the shaft acts as a performance-enhancing cock ring, while the larger bottom ring loops around his balls for a super-tight squeeze. You instantly become twice the man you were before, thanks to a smooth silicone shaft underneath that's ready to double the trouble.

The silicone shaft has a tapered tip for easy entry and is smooth and seamless all the way around. It's firm enough so that it won't bend during penetration. With this handy little sling strapped on, you and your lover can experience the thrill of double penetration without having to involve another partner!

Made from 100% medical-grade Elite Silicone, this ultra-premium dildo is body-safe, hypoallergenic, and sculpted to excite. Elite Silicone is made to play hard and is extremely pliable, ranging from firm to flexible and conforming to the body's contours. The supple material quickly warms to body temperature, giving users the most realistic stimulation ever imagined. It's phthalate-free, latex-free, nonporous and the safest sex toy material on the market today!

To clean, the dildo can be placed in the dishwasher or boiled, or cleaned with Toy Cleaner and warm water. Use plenty of Moist Body Lotion for an extra wet, extra wild experience.
