Product description

Hit the right spot every time with this elegant Strap-On. This low-rise harness features a soft plush liner that feels great against your skin, while the 4-way nylon straps are fully adjustable to fit most sizes.

The metal O-ring holds everything in place when the action heats up, and can be removed to accommodate any sized O-ring. The 7-inch phthalate-free dildo features a realistic shape and textures that feel even better than the real thing. The tapered tip eases insertion while the lifelike veiny texture will drive your lover wild.

The suction-cup base keeps it snug in place, but can also be removed from the harness for a wall-banging good time. Use with plenty of Moist Body Lotion for an extra wet and wild experience.
