Product description

This electric stimulation Shock Therapy Kit is perfect for first-timers and those new to e-stimulation. The easy-to-read LCD screen on the digital power control unit clearly displays the function and intensity level, and with 3 pre-programmed pulsation patterns to choose from, this attractive control unit sends electric impulses to whichever body part you place pad on.

Choose from a sensuous tingle to a throbbing tap, all with the push of a button, and pick one of the 5 body zones to stimulate. With over 100 stimulation combinations to choose from, the possibilities are endless. With the built-in timer function, the battery-powered unit will automatically shut off after the 15 minute interval. The pads are self-adhesive, attach to the lead wire using snaps, and clean up easily after the fun with antibacterial cleaner and warm water.
