Product description

Let your imagination take you beyond your physical limits with the incredible Deluxe Position Master with Cuffs. This inflatable position pillow has a hollow center designed to anchor a super strong nylon strap, which then connects to a pair of heavy-duty metal cuffs. Once your subject is bent over the wedge-shaped pillow and strapped in, they're unable to move or escape while their hands are cuffed to the strap's heavy-duty O-ring centerpiece.

The inflatable wedge allows you to explore and enjoy new positions you never thought were possible, all while your subject is comfortably restrained! The velvety-soft flocked vinyl feels great against your skin and it's made to play hard. Insert the nylon strap through the Position Master while it's deflated, then inflate the wedge and adjust the strap to fit snugly around your partner. The thick nylon strap features a plastic clip and buckle to prevent your lover from escaping, and the metal cuffs feature quick release levers just in case you lose the keys.

The air seal valve makes inflating the wedge a snap, and when the fun is over, simply deflate the Position Master and it's ready to go where you go. It's perfect for those romantic getaways and no one will know what's in your bag!
