Product description

The LIMBA FLEX: a versatile, super flexible dildo for everyone’s needs. Its bendable shaft holds its shape thanks to an internal wire and helps you target your hot spots exactly how you want – whether you are aiming for your G-spot, A-spot, or prostate. Be sure to clean the toy thoroughly or use a fresh condom when changing positions. Due to its slim design and a smooth tip, LIMBA FLEX is also great for pegging and strap-on sessions. The flat base makes it easy to keep the toy in place, and the ultra-thin texture lends a close-to-body feel. For an ultra-smooth experience, use a water-based lubricant.

The LIMBA FLEX M: your sweet spot
Not too small, not too big – LIMBA FLEX M is just right. With a length of 6.9 inches and a diameter of 1.3 inches, it offers deeper stimulation while keeping things comfortable. The ergonomic design makes it ideal for both G-spot and anal stimulation.

Thanks to its secure suction base, you can get creative with hands-free FUN, exploring new positions with ease. And of course, it’s 100% waterproof and crafted from body-friendly silicone. Enjoy long-lasting quality backed by FUN FACTORY’s impressive 25-year warranty.
