Product description

The LIMBA FLEX: a versatile, super flexible dildo for everyone’s desires. Its bendable shaft holds its shape thanks to an internal wire and helps you target your hot spots precisely – whether you are aiming for your G-spot or prostate. When changing positions, be sure to clean the toy thoroughly or use a fresh condom. Due to its slim design and a smooth tip, the LIMBA FLEX is also great for pegging and strap-on sessions. The flat base makes it easy to keep the toy in place, and the ultra-thin texture lends a close-to-body feel. For an extra smooth experience, use a water-based lubricant.

LIMBA FLEX S: the perfect introduction
Perfect for the curious, the LIMBA FLEX S offers a comfortable experience without being too overwhelming. With a length of 4.8 inches and a diameter of 1.2 inches, it’s just the right size to explore new sensations at your own pace. The ergonomic design makes it ideal for both G-spot and anal stimulation. Meanwhile, the sturdy suction base sticks firmly to smooth surfaces – like tiles – bringing hands-free FUN to the shower or bath. And, of course, it’s 100% waterproof and crafted from body-friendly silicone. Enjoy long-lasting quality backed by FUN FACTORY’s impressive 25-year warranty.
