SUNDAZE: A ONE-OF-A-KIND TAPPING, THRUSTING, PULSING VIBRATOR

SUNDAZE is an ingenious innovation and real toy novelty. Our new Pulse Vibe technology offers a spectrum of sensations that stimulate the body in unexpected ways. With its range of tapping, vibrating, and pulsing sensations, SUNDAZE engages nerve endings other vibrators cant and awakens the blood flow, for instant arousal. The array of sensations invites people to spend time exploring, leading to fuller orgasms with no danger of habituation. In a nutshell: SUNDAZE is that leisurely Sunday afternoon play date. There are no agendas, just pure pleasure and discovery.

SPEND THE DAY IN BED
Sundaze is that feeling of relaxation and openness that you get on long, lazy Sunday afternoons. The first time we felt the SUNDAZE vibe, we knew thats what we had to call it. With fifteen varied sensations to choose from, this toy just begs to be played with for hours at a time, while you explore every possible way to make yourself feel awesome.

WHAT MAKES SUNDAZE SPECIAL?
Its not just a vibrator: its a Pulse Vibe. SUNDAZE uses patented new technology to move not just from zingy to rumbling vibration, but also to light tapping that turns you on like nothing else, pulsing and stroking motions, and hands-free thrusting for internal or external massage. This thrusting vibrator is good for sensitive people and also for power lovers, a combination you hardly ever see. Youve literally never felt anything like it before, and it feels freaking amazing.

As a bonus, you can save your favorite arousal setting, so SUNDAZE starts with it every time, and if you accidentally turn the toy off during play, just turn it back on within 15 seconds to return to the same setting.

WILL ALL THOSE NEW SENSATIONS MAKE ME DEPENDENT ON THE SUNDAZE?
Quite the opposite! Vibrators arent inherently habit-forming; its just that people tend to use them the same way, on the same setting, over and over again, every single time. This pulsating vibrator gives you so many ways to play, with so many different kinds of sensations, that youre in no danger of habituating your body to the toy. In fact, SUNDAZEs arousal-boosting settings prime your body to feel good in any way you want, with or without the toy! After using it, sex with a partner actually feels more intense, not less.

CAN I USE THIS THRUSTING VIBRATOR WITH A PARTNER?
Absolutely! SUNDAZE is an especially great toy for someone who wants to get turned on more easily with a partner or whos noticed a change in their arousal due to age or stress. Try the tapping and pulsing settings, which help awaken your nerve endings and boost blood flow, making you feel more aroused and more sensitive.

DESIGN & COLOR
The Sundaze feeling is nothing but pure passion. Just like the style of our Pulse Vibe. A figurative design and elegant form are combined with strong lines and true sensuality. Minimalistic, yet sufficiently abstract to arouse imagination. Cautious transitions run smoothly, designed for optimal and precise transmission of vibrations, tapping and pulsing. SUNDAZE in fuchsia pink, the embodiment of freshness, intensity and pleasure. Or - wrapped in a creamy pistachio, as a symbol of devotion and pleasure.

HIT THE RIGHT NERVE
Its more than just a vibrator. It pulses, taps, flutters, shakes, and shimmies, making you feel things youve never felt before... and accessing hard-to-reach nerve endings, for nearly instant arousal, priming your body for deeper and more fulfilling orgasms. In the meantime, you get to play. Because theres nothing better than spending your Sunday in bed, feeling EVERYTHING.

Most vibrators only stimulate one kind of nerve ending. SUNDAZE stimulates three of them! How is that, you ask? Different nerve endings process different kinds of sensations?and SUNDAZE has a lot of them. Plus, alternating between different sensations keeps you from getting habituated to just one. The following nerve endings are stimulated by the thrusting vibrator SUNDAZE and lead you to even more intense orgasms:

MERKELS DISKS
Respond to light touch, like the tapping settings of SUNDAZE.

PACINIAN CORPUSCLES
Detect pressure and vibration, i.e. SUNDAZEs first three settings.

RUFFINI ENDINGS
Feel when skin moves and stretches. Use the pulsation settings for these!
