Product description

TIGER: the truly strong & animalistic vibrator.

His territory is the urban jungle. TIGER is the perfect companion with which to wander the narrow streets and courtyards, illuminated by the neon advertisement lights. In the rambling city parks he rules his city jungle, every day a new experience ? always on the hunt for a little bit of FUN, to escape the routine and find his next erotic adventure. He makes a dangerously attractive first impression, but really TIGER is a pussycat.

- Powerful structuring around the shaft for intense stimulation during insertion
- Deep frequency, yet very quiet motor
- 6 vibration rhythms and 6 vibration intensities
- Particularly flexible shaft made of stable silicone which readily adapts to the body and its movements
- The curved tip intensely stimulates the G-spot and prostate
- The wide toy base pleasures the clitoris or the perineum and makes TIGER G5 safe for anal games
- Key lock for safe and discreet transport
- Battery level display
- Intuitive control
- 100% waterproof
- Designed and handcrafted in Germany
- Medical-grade silicone - free of harmful substances and odor
- Velvety smooth surface

With the ergonomic PRESS FUN TO PLAY control element, he obeys every command by the push of a button, to pleasure gently or wildly. Bit by bit TIGER is passionately inserted and each ridge passes release the beast in HIM and HER. The massive base means TIGER is also safe for anal forays and powerfully massages the clitoris or perineum. The curved toy end on TIGER pleasures the G-spot in a woman and the prostate in a man. Smooth and sleek like a cat of prey, the particularly pliable shaft made of medical-grade silicone can thanks to the unique FlexiFUN Technology adapt to the bodys shape and any imaginable position. So hes sure to reach even the most hidden passion points with powerful vigor.

With a total of 12 vibration programs, TIGER, just like a real tiger in the wild is quiet when on the hunt ? whether on a solo tour or with a partner. The ergonomic control unit LOOP, with a little cutout in the handle, rests perfectly in the users hand. With an index finger looped through the silver ring to hold it, the toy rests in the palm and the three touch buttons of the PRESS FUN TO PLAY controls can be intuitively controlled using a thumb. The navigation is easy and comfortable with the + and ? buttons. The red FUN button starts and stops TIGERs amorous tour of discovery with just one click.

The powerful motor of the generation 5 vibrator is designed to allow more energy into the silicone shaft. The intense vibrations are distributed without losing any drop in strength throughout the entire shaft and right up to the tip of the toy. A battery level display ensures that TIGER doesnt lose sight of his goal at just the wrong moment. The QuickSTOP function using the FUN button stops any secret adventures in half a second. Plus the key lock means TIGER can leave home and explore his natural habitat, traveling the world discreetly in a handbag or suitcase. And totally unusual for cats, he loves swimming because this waterproof vibrator can be completely submerged and promises thrills under the waves.

By the way ? this TIGER isn't into stripes. Instead he enchants in bright india red, powerful petrol and racy violet.
