Product description

It's almost impossible to believe how realistic the material of this sex toy is. Gjack mini offers a classic vibrator style with thick ridges for intense sensations up and down the shaft. GVibe reached a new height in the evolution of pleasure product materials when they created BIOSKIN. This high-quality body-friendly silicone material feels as close to human flesh as possible and is heated to feel even more like the real thing.

The Gjack mini was designed with clitorises, G-spots and vaginas in mind. Some may call it a female massager or a sex toy for women, but we believe that any gender can have fun with this non-realistic internal stimulator.
