All toys are made from super soft, premium hypoallergenic silicone, silky in every curve and texture, very easy to clean and with an unmatched feel. This is rated as the best material for use in sex toys thanks to its easy lubrication, durability and of course, luxurious and excellent appearance.

In addition to the silicone, they are accompanied by a pearl gold detail culminating in the excellence of elegance, being the best purchase option for a nice and luxurious detail between couples or special companions. Ten exclusive toys, each with special functions that will make your business shine, attracting attention in an unparalleled way thanks to its exclusive presentation.

If we talk about comfort in transport and discretion, Ibiza begins by innovating, since we also consider that it is a very important part of the experience of buying an erotic toy. When you buy a toy from Ibiza, you will receive a premium box with a black carrying bag inside, where you will find the toy, a charger and a single-dose sachet of Waterfeel Neutral lubricant so that the customer's first experience is as pleasant as possible, and they can discreetly take the toy wherever they want.

“When pleasure is a matter of two, everything improves.” Ibiza has toys specially designed for couples to enjoy, and can be used in games for both him and her, as well as the practice of pegging, or the use of remote control eggs that stimulate the G-spot of women discreetly, and can be used on a special date, no matter the place.

Our ultimate goal with this range of luxury toys is to make everyone who has one of them feel special, having patiently studied what the end customer needs to satisfy all their needs and taking the utmost care of every detail so that it is the best gift you can give to someone special.

For this reason, we present Ibiza, to distinguish luxury, to give shape and personality to sex like never before thought, so that foreplay becomes something necessary within couples, and to make masturbation a great moment, making the difference in an experience of pleasure.
