Product description

A silicone-based lubricating fluid that is not a gel and does not depend on the body's natural moisture, making it effective in cases and areas where there is no natural lubrication.
Just a few drops of a silky-smooth but super-concentrated lubricant will get you or your lover into sexual overdrive.

Features:

- Silicone-based lubricating fluid, concentrated, transparent, tasteless and odorless.
- Silky soft, non-drying, non-absorbent and non-sticky.
- It does not lose its softness, even under water.
- Durable throughout use and safe to use with a condom.
- Designed to enhance the intimate experience, thanks to a unique formula and quality ingredients. Due to its concentration and durability, a few drops are enough to greatly improve sexual relations.
