Product description

Discover a new dimension of pleasure with the Helena Up & Down vibrator from Intense, a sophisticated stimulator that combines advanced technology, ergonomic design, and unmatched power. Its innovative Up & Down mode with internal bead system provides a vertical movement that simulates real penetration, while its oscillating head precisely massages the G-spot, offering an intense, immersive, and completely personalized experience.

Equipped with 10 vibration modes and 3 bead movement modes, Helena lets you enjoy different combinations of rhythm and intensity to suit any mood or level of arousal. Its powerful vibrations travel through the entire structure of the vibrator, stimulating both internally and externally, while the upward and downward movements add a realistic and completely unique sensation.

Its elegant and anatomical design is made with super-soft medical silicone and high-quality ABS, ensuring a velvety touch, comfortable insertion, and a safe experience. It is phthalate-free and body-safe, with every detail taken care of to offer pleasure without compromising health or comfort.
