Product description

The INTENSE Janet stimulator and vibrator is an innovative erotic toy designed to offer you a unique and totally personalized pleasure experience. Its U-shaped design adapts perfectly to the needs of dual stimulation, working simultaneously in the vaginal and clitoral areas, allowing you to enjoy enveloping and pleasurable sensations in a coordinated manner.

Equipped with two powerful independent motors, this vibrator offers intense stimulation both internally and externally, with 9 vibration modes so you can choose the combination of sensations that you like the most. Each mode has been designed to take you from gentle to more powerful vibrations, adapting to your desires and preferences.

The medical silicone and ABS material with which the Janet is made is completely body-safe, hypoallergenic, and phthalate-free, ensuring a comfortable and safe experience. Its smooth, silky surface provides a comfortable feeling during use, making every moment more pleasurable.

Thanks to its water resistance, the Janet vibrator is ideal for enjoying worry-free sessions in the shower or bath. Plus, its magnetic charger allows you to recharge it quickly and easily, without any hassle.

The included remote control gives you complete control over the vibrator, allowing you to adjust the vibration and stimulation modes without interrupting your enjoyment. With a total length of 10.2 cm, this compact stimulator is ideal for those looking for a discreet yet powerful toy, perfect for traveling or using discreetly.
