Product description

The TODRICK vibrating bullet from INTENSE is a sleek and compact stimulation device in a vibrant purple color.

This product is designed with a focus on comfort and safety, made with ABS and a super-soft medical-grade silicone button pad, a body-safe material.

Measuring 2.5 cm in diameter by 10.2 cm in length, the TODRICK bullet is small enough to be discreet, yet delivers significant power thanks to its powerful motor.

It offers 10 different vibration modes, allowing customization of the experience according to the user's preferences.

The design includes a magnetic charger, making recharging easy and ensuring the device is always ready to use.

Plus, its submersible construction makes it ideal for use in the shower or bathtub, expanding its usage possibilities.

The TODRICK bullet also incorporates ABS material in its manufacture, adding durability and resistance.

With this device, INTENSE combines functionality and comfort in a versatile, high-quality product.
