Product description

Vortex Gel Cooling Effect is a stimulating gel for the female clitoris that is used before sexual intercourse for clitoral massage.

Vortex Gel is specially formulated to increase the sexual pleasure of women and improve the sensitivity of private parts, increases sexual desire and pleasure, as well as the frequency and intensity of orgasm. It is a safe and practical gel for all women.

Vortex Gel Cooling Effect works by stimulating blood flow to the clitoris and vaginal area. Its main ingredient is L-arginine, an amino acid capable of stimulating blood flow in the female genital area with the consequent increase in the sexual stimulation of women. After application to the clitoris and vagina, it provides a tingly cool sensation, increasing sensitivity and intensifying orgasm.
