Product description

This is the perfect toy for those who want everything. Perfectly curved to access the G-spot, the curve also follows the contour of your body externally for intense clitoral orgasms.

If you're unsure about which type you're looking for, this is the toy for you. It's small and cute, so unintimidating for first timers.

Start using your bullet externally, gently working the clitoris and labia. Playing like this will give you an incredible orgasm. If you get more adventurous, you can work the soft head around the entrance of the vagina and insert it whenever feels right.
