Product description

Soon after the brand’s initial release in January 2015, King Cock became the go-to name for high-quality, super-realistic, American-made rubber. To get to the top, our approach has been simple: we’ve created a better American-made product at a more affordable price, and we’ve been able to fill the orders consistently by ensuring that King Cock is always in stock. With our brand-new state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities producing the highest fill rates in the industry, it’s no wonder why Pipedream has quickly become the King of American-made rubber!

We have the capacity and infrastructure to produce over 10,000 units a day, and with distribution partners spread all across the globe, it’s easy to see why King Cock wears the crown. But we’re not stopping with American-made rubber, we’re going to show the whole world why it’s good to be the King!

Our new King Cock vibrating dildos are the most realistic American-made vibrating cocks in the world! Every vein, every shaft and every head is handcrafted with exquisite attention to detail to give you the most lifelike experience imagined. The posable shafts allow you to bend the vibe to conform to your body’s contours, while the powerful motor whisks you away. The super-strong removable suction cup bases stick to nearly any flat surface and make all King Cock Vibes harness compatible. You can even take these waterproof vibes into the shower, hot tub or spa and turn bath time into playtime!
