More information:

The Eropharm Spanish love cream for genitals incorporates a high stimulating power thanks to its active ingredients such as basil with stimulating properties on the skin or maca extract with energetic, revitalizing and libido-increasing effects.

Its beneficial properties increase performance in both, providing that spark that increases vitality and sexual power to carry out sexual relations for longer.

By stimulating blood circulation in the genitals, it gives the penis powerful erections and the vulva a sensitivity that increases sensations during intimate relationships to make them even more pleasurable.

How to use:

Apply a little Eropham Spanish love cream to your hand, spread it making gentle circular movements on the penis and testicles, on the vulva, apply to the outer lips and clitoris.

It is not suitable for use with a condom.

Dermatologically tested.

Made in Germany.
