Product description

Sexmatch Roleplay Edition is the card game for couples in which you must match illustrations and words by completing challenges until one of you runs out of cards. The game contains 89 playing cards (81 cards and 8 jokers) and 1 guide card.

Game rules:
To start the game, the 89 cards are shuffled and 7 cards are dealt to each player. The rest of the cards are left face down on the table forming the draw pile. The oldest player starts by drawing the first card at random. Then it is the other player's turn; he must draw a card that matches the illustration or word of the card on the table. If he does not have any valid cards, he must draw a card from the draw pile, thus losing their turn and having to wait for the next turn to be able to draw. Each time a player throws a card that matches the word of the previous one on the table, they must perform the action indicated on the card at that same moment.

- Wild Cards: There are also 8 wild cards, 2 of each type. The player who has a wild card in their hand can throw it during their turn at any time during the game. When a player throws the wild card, the other player must perform the action indicated on the wild card at that same moment. After throwing the wild card, the player who throws it must indicate a word and an illustration and the other player can throw one or the other as they wish to continue the game.

The player who runs out of cards first wins the game. The person who wins the game decides which role-playing game of all those that have appeared in the illustrations during the game they want to practice with their partner. Enjoy together the game in which having a Sexmatch has very sexy rewards!
