Product description

Discover the world and each other! The exciting travel game for an erotic adventure for both of you.

To give an extra erotic touch to your trips, Intimate Mission Travel Edition now appears! Vacations are precisely a good time to awaken passion. This exciting travel edition of the world-famous erotic game for a couple (man/woman) transports you through a route of inciting challenges towards your most daring fantasy. In this, respect for each person's fantasies and limits is never lost sight of.

Intimate Mission (formerly known as 'The Desire Game'), was launched in 2008. With great success! The game has been published in no less than five languages and is played all over the world. The lovers discover each other in a new way and become (even) closer to each other. The travel edition of the game contains 99 questions and tests that will undoubtedly provide you with an unforgettable vacation. Everything revolves around enjoying each other to the fullest, through intimate questions and exciting tests. There are different levels in the game and it can be adapted to each person's 'taste' according to your personal choice. The winner will see his supreme wish come true. Discover your biggest fantasies together... and turn those dreams into reality!

A spicy tone in this travel edition is given by the scarf. This can be used as a blindfold or... as an exciting rope to tie yourself up with. If at the end of the game you want to relax in a different way, you can use the board as a 'frisbee'. The set can be transported easily and discreetly thanks to the pretty satin travel bag. To make your vacation complete with an extra erotic tone!

Misión Intima was developed with the collaboration of sexologists. The nature of the game is exciting but respectful and takes into account feminine sensibilities. All the desires, desires and dreams of men and women can manifest in it.

The questions and tests in the Travel Edition have been published in five languages: Dutch, Spanish, English, French and German.
