Product description

Lady Dream is a stimulating gel in the female clitoral area, to be used before sexual intercourse.

Lady Dream increases sexual desire and pleasure, as well as the frequency and intensity of orgasm. It is a safe and practical gel suitable for all women, based on arginine, an amino acid capable of stimulating blood flow to the female genital area, with the consequent increase in sexual stimulation for women.

Lady Dream works by stimulating blood flow to the clitoris and vaginal area. Its main ingredient is arginine, an amino acid capable of stimulating blood flow in the female genital area with the consequent increase in sexual stimulation for women. After application to the clitoris and vagina, it provides a sensation of tickling coolness, increasing sensitivity and intensifying orgasm.
