Product description

Enjoy your erotic walk to the fullest and don't worry about anything that could disturb your thoughts. Trust in this Pasante Wild Strawberry lubricant gel from 75 ml and live the uniqueness of your intimate moment. The vegan gel without animal ingredients was created for extraordinary moments of passion, taking into account the sensitive environment of your parts. The soft and smooth texture of the Water-based gel glides on beautifully and provides long-lasting hydration. Non-irritating, non-sticky and leaves skin silky and perfectly hydrated. For even more intense sensations of pleasure, you'll love this gel with the sweet and juicy aroma of fresh strawberries.

Pasante gels are subject to strict dermatological tests and have health certification. They are compatible with all erotic aid materials and latex condoms. They do not contain spermicides. Convenient pump bottle can be easily hidden in your purse or jacket pocket for all occasions. Simply turn the pump to the ON position and squeeze to apply a layer of gel on the intimate parts or a condom. After opening, use within 3 months. Discover the exciting premium gel and enjoy spicy and fruity fun.
