Product description

WATER-BASED PERSONAL LUBRICANT - Explore sensuality naturally: pjur ORGANIC Touch is a water-based lubricant made with 98% natural and vegan ingredients. Its gentle formula moisturizes and cares for the skin, providing a natural, silky sensation for all your intimate moments.

Whether you explore solo, with a partner, or with toys, pjur ORGANIC Touch is the perfect choice for those looking for a lubricant with natural ingredients that cares for the skin. Skin-friendly, vegan, and condom-compatible, it's an ideal complement to any intimate experience.

As part of the pjur ORGANIC range, this product is the ideal complement to ORGANIC Touch and ORGANIC Fresh, creating a holistic concept for natural intimate care that allows you to feel good in every intimate encounter.

The range is aimed at all sexually active people, regardless of gender, marital status, or sexual orientation. It is especially appealing to conscious consumers who prefer natural and vegan ingredients, as well as to health-conscious people looking for gentle, skin-friendly products. It also targets premium buyers who value quality and naturalness and are willing to invest in both.
