Product description

Combining the pleasure of G-spot stimulation with powerful clitoral vibration, the unique design flexes with movement to stay in contact with your clitoris. This piece resonates like no other dual stimulator. Easy-to-use controls let you get the perfect feel. Increase or decrease the intensity or turn off the G-spot or clitoral vibration. Mix it up to try new combinations. The powerful motor increases the pleasure with 30 vibration functions.

A rechargeable G-spot stimulator with more than 30 vibrations is a sophisticated sex toy specifically designed to provide an intense and personalized pleasure experience. Made from body-safe materials, this toy features an ergonomic design that perfectly fits the anatomy to provide precise and comfortable G-spot stimulation.

The main feature of this stimulator is its extensive variety of over 30 vibration modes, allowing users to explore a wide range of sensations and find the intensity and pattern that best suits their individual preferences. From gentle pulsations to powerful vibrations, this toy offers exceptional versatility to personalize the intimate experience.

The built-in recharge function adds convenience and sustainability by eliminating the need for disposable batteries. Equipped with a USB cable charging system, this stimulator is easily recharged, ensuring that it is always ready to satisfy your desires without interruptions. Plus, battery life is usually long enough for extended pleasure sessions.

The curved design and specific shape of the toy are designed to precisely reach and stimulate the G-spot, providing intense and satisfying sensations. Some models may also incorporate additional features, such as strategic textures, to increase stimulation and arousal.

The soft-touch silicone ensures a comfortable experience during insertion, while the intuitive controls allow you to easily switch between the different vibration modes without interruptions. Likewise, proper cleaning after each use is essential to maintain the hygiene of the toy and ensure its durability.
