Product description

A realistic penis shaped thrusting and vibrating vibrator with a strong suction cup that sticks to any smooth surface. The suction cup makes hands-free fun possible.

The 3 vibration and thrust modes can be controlled separately by the remote control or by a partner. The thrusting and vibrating pleasure dildo is covered in soft silicone that feels great against the skin.

The realistic vibrator is excitingly firm and hard without losing flexibility thanks to this material. The silky soft silicone material looks like real skin and also feels as soft as velvet. It can be recharged with the magnetic charging station located at the end of the toy.

-Soft Silicone Material : The dildo is made with high quality silicone, a soft, flexible and body-safe material. The softness of silicone not only provides comfort during use, but also makes insertion easier and allows for a more pleasurable sensual experience.

-Remote Control : The inclusion of a remote control adds an extra layer of convenience and fun to the experience. This allows the partner or user to have full control over the vibrations and movement of the toy without interruption, adding an element of surprise and excitement to shared intimacy.

- Vibrating Function: Equipped with a powerful vibrating motor, the silicone dildo offers a variety of vibration patterns and intensity levels. This allows for complete customization to individual preferences, from gentle vibrations to intense pulsations, all designed to increase pleasure and stimulation.

- Thrusting Function : The thrusting function adds a unique dimension to the experience, simulating the sensation of realistic and natural penetration. This thrusting movement provides deep and varied internal stimulation, delivering intense sensations and contributing to a more complete sexual experience.

- Ergonomic Design : The ergonomic design of the dildo guarantees comfortable insertion and easy manipulation. Its shape is carefully designed to adapt to the body's anatomy and maximize stimulation both internally and externally.
